

CONTENTS

AUŠRA KAZILIŪNAITĖ Living in 'Interesting Times' as the Imperative of Asking Unimagined Questions	1
Epistemology: Human Cognition, Cognitive Connotations, and the Concept of Knowledge
MICHAL ČERNÝ The Myth of Rationality and the Dualistic Concept of Knowledge on the Example of the Formation of the Concept of Information Literacy	5
AISTĖ DIRŽYTĖ Large Language Models and the Enhancement of Human Cognition: Some Theoretical Insights.	14
BINGZHUAN PENG, XINYUE WANG Cognitive Connotations of Discourse Subjectivity from the Philosophic Perspective	23
Phenomenology: Being-in-the-world, Learning, and Dante's Phenomenology of Evil
MINDAUGAS BRIEDIS, MARIANO NAVARRO The Enaction of Embodied Metaphors in Dante's Phenomenology of Evil	33
NERIJUS STASIULIS Heideggerian Notes on Education: Learning and Being-in-the-world.	42
Social Philosophy: Symbolic Interaction, Conspiracy Theories, and Urban Communities
GABRIELA AMBÁS, PAULA GÁRGOLES Fashioning Society: An Exploration of Collective Behaviour and Cultural Change Through Symbolic Interactionism	50
LINA VIDAUSKYTĖ On the Conspiracy Theories as Irony and Language Games (with Continual Reference to Richard Rorty's Philosophy)	60
VAIDAS JAKUTIS Urban Community in the Postmodern Urban Context	68
Ethics: Axiology of Military Leadership and Technological Morality
VADYM DYIAK, VLADYSLAV VOLOBUIEV Evolution of the Axiology of Military Leadership: Historical and Philosophical Aspect in the Context of the Russian-Ukrainian War	76
ZHENG LIU Toward Datafied Human Enhancement: Concept, Functional Classifications and Ethical Issues	85
Logic and the Historical Development of Philosophical Thought
VYTIS VALATKA The First Age of Logic in Lithuania: Propositio as Such and the Necessary Propositions	94
SHERMAN XIE The Three Elements Involved in Causality and Their Correspondence	101